GOSPEL REFLECTION: Luke 16:1-13

The parable of the dishonest manager does exactly what a good parable should do: it jars us, and makes us pay attention! Here we find Jesus praising the business manager for his astute and clever ways. In that if the debtor forgave some of the debts that were owed, the customers would show further favor toward him. This is exactly what God does with us many times more, in that when we accumulate a debt of sin and ask for forgiveness God sets us free of these shackles and so we should love and praise Him evermore. Secondly Jesus points out that money is for people and should not be used vice versa. When money is used for the sake of people, we to can become good stewards, when its not however used for the common good, it means we love money more than God.

1. How do you live in the tension created by the love of money in our society and God?
2. How does your parish show its commitment to share its resources (financial and otherwise) with the poor?
3. What new practices might you personally, or your community adopt to ensure that your resources serve needs other than our own?

THE SPIRITUAL MOTHERHOOD OF PRIESTS

The Spiritual Motherhood of Priests is a new apostolate for any interested women in the Roman Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon. In 2007, the Congregation of the Clergy, with approval of Pope Benedict XVI, invited women to adopt priests as their “spiritual sons” and to pray for them constantly, particularly before the Blessed Sacrament. As part of the Spiritual Motherhood of Priests, women try to imitate our Blessed Mother Mary, the first Mother of Priests, in her humility and sacrifice. In a life-long commitment, every woman who joins the Spiritual Motherhood of Priests is given the name of one priest in the Roman Catholic Diocese of Saskatoon to adopt as her “spiritual son,” promising to anonymously pray daily for him, as well as to pray for him during a weekly hour of Eucharistic Adoration, and to make sacrifices to help her priest-son give himself to God more perfectly as shepherd of his flock. All women – single, married, widowed, consecrated religious – are welcome to discern this apostolate of prayer and sacrifice for the sanctification and support of our priests. Find out more at <https://rcdos.ca/smop> or contact Jacqueline Saretsky at smop@rcdos or calling (306) 659-5839.
